AUTUMNAL WEDDING.

Mr. Otto Schroll and Miss Caldwell Wed at High Noon.

IT WAS A BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENT.

The Ceremony Was Performed at the First Presbyterian Church by Dr. Cunningham—A Reception in the Afternoon—Other Weddings and Social Events That Have Taken Place or are in the Prospective.

One of the prettiest weddings ever witnessed in Wheeling was that of yesterday afternoon, which united Mr. Otto Schroll, late of Columbus, Ohio, now with the Wheeling Terminal road as civil engineer, and Miss Jane Goshorn Caldwell, the handsome and accomplished daughter of ex-Attorney General Alfred Caldwell. The ceremony took place at high noon in the First Presbyterian church, and was performed by the pastor, Rev. Dr. D. A. Cunningham, in the presence of a large and brilliant assemblage of friends of the contracting parties. The church was beautifully decorated, the floral arrangement at the altar being particularly fine, reflecting great credit upon Mr. O'Neill, who designed the decorations.

As the capitol clock was ringing out the mid-day hour the wedding march was struck up by Prof. George Summers on the great pipe organ with Prof. Herman Shockey's violin accompaniment. Simultaneously the bridal party entered the church and proceeded up the center aisle, the beautiful costumes of the bride and maids of honor showing brilliantly beside the somber black attire of the gentlemen attendants. The ushers, Messrs. Kilbourne List, William Paxton Burke, George Baird and Harry O. Ott, came first, followed by the bridesmaids, Misses Gertrude List and Lillian Vance, who in turn were followed by the maids of honor, Miss Helen Caldwell and Miss Laura Caldwell, sisters of the bride. The bride and groom, the former leaning on the latter's arm, brought up the rear. The groomsmen were Mr. Frank Gale, of Columbus, and Mr. Harry Shaw, of Columbus.

The impressive and solemnly beautiful service of the Presbyterian church was then pronounced by Dr. Cunningham, after which the party proceeded to the home of the bride's parents, on North Main street, where a wedding dinner took place, followed in the afternoon by a reception and by a dance last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Schroll left on the afternoon Pan-Handle train for the east. They will return in about two weeks and will be at home at the McLure.

Among the out-of-town guests who were present were: Mrs. Albert Rand, of Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. George Goshorn, of Charleston; Miss Schroll, of Columbus; Miss Caldwell and Mr. Waugh, of Washington, Pa., and several others. The presents were unusually numerous and handsome, numbering over one hundred.

Springer-Wheeler.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wheeler, on the Island, yesterday afternoon, Mr. Murray Springer, a well known young attaché of the Etna-Standard mill, and Miss Cora Wheeler, were married by Rev. Jacob Brittingham, rector of St. Luke's church. The parlors were tastefully decorated for the occasion, and after a reception which followed the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Springer left for an extended eastern tour.

Kenny-Finan.

At the church of the Immaculate Conception yesterday morning Mr. Harry Kenny, of Sistersville, and Miss Mamie Finan, of the Eighth ward, were united in marriage, Rev. Father Mullen officiating. After the ceremony a reception was tendered at the home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kenny left for their future home at Sistersville, where a reception was tendered them last night.

"Will" Greer Marries.

Yesterday morning, at St. Alphonsus church, occurred the marriage of Mr. William Greer, the well known wheelman, and Miss Theresa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Speaker, of Fourteenth street. The groom's best man was Mr. Walter Woris, another wheelman, the two having often met on the cycle track. Last evening a reception took place at the home of the bride's parents.

THE GRAND this evening—"The Power of Gold."

OPERA House this evening—"Chimes of Normandy."

JANE HENDERSON, a colored woman, was run in last night by Officer West as a plain drunk.

The old Weisert house above the present Pan-Handle station has been razed to the ground preparatory to the erection of the new passenger station.

"THE BURGALAR" closed a very good engagement at the Grand last night. It is a fine drama, well presented, and deserves even better patronage than it received.

There were two disorderlies, a woman and a man, in the police court yesterday morning, and one plain drunk, and all three were let go on promising not to offend again.

The old engine house of the Pollock flour mill, on the corner of Fourteenth street and Alley B, is being torn down. It is understood a fine new storeroom will be built there.

SOME young men sitting in section A at the Opera House last night made themselves very obnoxious to spectators by their loud talking during the performance. People paid to see the show and not to be interrupted by them.

YESTERDAY on Main street above Twelfth, the team of William Moore, who drives the Harrisville hack, ran off and into an electric car. The horses were hurt somewhat, one perhaps fatally, and the hack and car were both injured.

THE Union Epworth League will hold their regular monthly meeting at the South Bellaire M. E. church this evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. P. K. Henthorne, of Bridgeport, will be present and deliver his famous lecture on "Mistakes of the Devil." All are cordially invited to attend.

Pleasant Social Event.

One of the social events of the season was the reception given by the superintendent, Mrs. Johnson, of the City Hospital, in honor of the recent graduates from the training school for nurses, Mrs. Elizabeth E. Trueman and Miss Sallie Dee Shaffer. The evening was spent in music, games and last, but not least, a very palatable repast consisting of the delicacies of the season.

More New Shelters.

The coming "pow-wow" of the Osiris temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, to take place at the Masonic temple, on the evening of November 29 is being looked forward to with pleasure by all but the twenty-five candidates who are to go over burning sands. It will be one of the largest classes that has been instituted into membership in the Osiris temple.

Marriage Customs.

In Java the bride washes the groom's feet as a token of subjection.

In Hungary, at one time, the groom gave the bride a kick for the same purpose during the wedding ceremony.

Horseback weddings, where groom and bride ride at full speed away from their pursuing attendants, are still sometimes seen in Tartary.

Among the Borneo head hunters a young man, in offering marriage to a young woman, had to present her with the head of a man killed by himself.

Tournefort says that among the Greek rustics to-day the bride and groom run the gauntlet of young folks of their acquaintance, who kick and cuff them as they pass.

In Wheeling and vicinity it is important to know that all young men contemplating marriage can be supplied with all needful articles for this important event at the STAR. Full Dress or Cutaway Frock, finest White Shirts and Collars, the correct Neckwear and Gloves, in short everything to step up with her to the altar and get spliced.
